

A Torah scroll for eternal remembrance

In memory of the late, soldier Dvir Barzani who gave his life for the sanctity of life.

In his personal Diary, he wrote before his passage:

"The mission: not to give up! To win!"

20-years-old when he killed in the Gaza Strip, A paratrooper from unit 890 fought fiercely together with his friends to defend the homeland and to rescue the residents of Kibbutz Be'eri.

A man whose mouth and heart are equal, who loves humanity, a true friend, a fighter for justice and a man of kindness who always strived to excel in everything he loved.

He studied at "dugma uziel" elementary School and "Himmelfarb" High School, which were sources of where he absorbed many values, love for others and a place for growth. He was also a member of the Ezra youth movement.

At the age of 13, together with his friends from "Himmelfarb" High school, he founded the project "Tami'd" as part of the project, about a thousand computers were repaired and given to families. As recognition, the group received the " The Presidential award of Volunteerism ".

Loved thought challenges, technology and computers.

Athlete, swimmer in the Greater Jerusalem Association and swimming coach.

Trained with street work, which gathered around him many trainees, younger and older, then him.

A man of dreams and quick actions to get everything done on time.

Everywhere he was, he spread love, truth and justice with modesty and humbleness.
